

Pregnant Healthcare Personnel

- The available data do not support removing pregnant personnel from work at this time, however this should be reassessed as additional data are available.
- Use of appropriate PPE, along with vaccination, hand hygiene and environmental cleaning makes it unnecessary in most cases to transfer pregnant personnel to an indirect patient care area.